

OVERVIEW

Street Smart is launching their spring safety campaign to remind Washington area drivers, bicyclists and pedestrians to remain alert, share the road and obey traffic laws.

CAMPAIGN COMPONENTS

- Campaign kickoff media event in Woodbridge, VA
- Radio traffic sponsorships in English and Spanish
- English and Spanish exterior bus ads, interior bus cards, transit shelter ads and “pumptopper” ads at gas stations across the region
- Thirteen Street Smart Safety Zone street team outreach locations in Maryland, Virginia and Washington, DC

REGIONAL FACTS

- In 2013, there were 66 pedestrian and 7 bicyclist fatalities, accounting for 27 percent of the 269 traffic fatalities in the Washington region.*
- Police in the District of Columbia, northern Virginia, and Maryland will be cracking down on drivers, pedestrians and bicyclists from April 14–May 11, issuing warnings and citations to those who violate the traffic safety laws that keep people walking and biking safe—fines range from $40 to $500.

STREET SAFETY TIPS

If you're driving...

- Slow down and obey the speed limit
- Look twice for people in crosswalks and yield to pedestrians and bicyclists
- Be careful when passing stopped vehicles
- Yield to pedestrians and cyclists at intersections when you're turning
- Allow three feet when passing bicyclists
- Look for cyclists and cars before you open your door
- Avoid using your cell phone and never text while driving

If you're walking...

- Cross the street at the corner and use marked crosswalks when they're available
- Wait for the "Walk" signal to cross the street
- Watch for turning vehicles. Before crossing look left, right, and left again
- Be seen! If you're walking after dark or in bad weather, make it easier for drivers to see you by wearing light clothing or something reflective
- Don't text while you're crossing the street
- If you're on an off-street trail, obey all posted signage and approach intersections with caution

If you're biking...

- Obey all traffic signs and traffic signals
- Ride in the direction of traffic, at least a car door width away from parked cars
- Use hand signals so drivers, bicyclists and pedestrians know what you're going to do
- Always wear a helmet
- Use lights if you're riding at times of darkness
- If you're on an off-street trail, obey all posted signage and approach intersections with caution
- Slow down and watch for pedestrians on sidewalks, trails and in crosswalks
